

Locating indexes on Familysearch

First choose the language (if necessary) by clicking on "English" at the bottom of the page.

The screenshot shows the top navigation bar of the FamilySearch website. It includes links for 'Informazioni', 'Offruti volontario', 'Blog', 'Feedback', 'Mappa del sito', 'Cookie Preferenze', and 'Italiano'. Below the navigation is a banner with legal text and a 'Feedback' button. The 'Feedback' button has a small green tree icon next to it.

Then register on Familysearch.org.

Then, click on ≡ top right ; then, click on 'search'.

Then search in "catalogue", enter the "place": Corato (click on "Italy, Bari, Corato")

The screenshot shows the FamilySearch Catalog search interface. The search bar contains 'Corato'. Below the search bar, a list shows 'Corato' and 'Italy, Bari, Corato'. A note indicates there is '1 Result'. To the right, a sidebar titled 'Other Catalogs to Consider:' lists 'OCLC WorldCat' with a brief description.

Click on 'Italy, Bari, Corato - Civil registration'.

Then on "Registri dello stato civile di Corato (Bari), 1809-1910".

The screenshot shows the search results for 'Italy, Bari, Corato - Civil registration'. On the left, a sidebar 'Refine your search' shows 'Place: Italy, Bari, Corato'. The main results area shows 'Parte di Italy, Bari' and a link to 'Italy, Bari, Corato - Civil registration ( 1 )'. Below this, another sidebar 'Perfeziona la ricerca' shows 'Cerca per: Luogo' with 'Italy, Bari, Corato' selected. The results list shows 'Registri dello stato civile di Corato (Bari), 1809-1910' with details about the author and archive.

Apart from the 'nati', 'matrimoni', 'morti', don't forget the 'Allegati' from 1866: these are all the documents produced at the time of the marriage banns (pubblicazioni). To find the right file in the 'Allegati', just look for the same marriage bann (pubblicazioni) number.

To find the record you are looking for in the registers ('nati', 'matrimoni', 'morti'), you must first locate the index.
